Professional Experience

John Sluhan specializes in the office market representing landlords with diverse holdings and market positions. He also represents a wide cross-section of office and medical clients and assures that their needs for efficiency and future growth are balanced.

Prior to his real estate employment, John spent more than five years as a golf professional at Stone Oak Country Club. As a golf pro, John gained extensive experience in customer relations, event planning, purchasing, corporate sales, inventory control and individual and group training. He has also served as an assistant golf coach at the University of Toledo where he was responsible for coaching, fund raising, scheduling and travel arrangements.
