Professional Experience

Emma is a graduate from the University of Toledo, where she studied Professional Sales and Finance in the College of Business and Innovation. While attending the University of Toledo, Emma worked as an intern for Reichle Klein Group assisting senior sales people and doing market research. She joined Reichle Klein Group as a full-time sales associate upon graduation from UT. A lifelong Toledoan, Emma is passionate about the revitalization of Toledo and is thrilled to be contributing to the success of the city through her real estate practice by attracting new businesses to the region, assisting new business with their space needs and improving the performance of her clients' real estate holdings.
